Vogu	Francisco	Kar La amina
Year	Experience	Key Learnings
2023	Team Member of EwA Product Marketing	Every design is not only about the creativity but need in line with our brand pillar. I learns how to covered our product into an physical selling that can interect people.
2023	Local Committee Conference	Build up my awareness about AIESEC value and how the world was going on. I learns that theres a lot back story behind of a leader until they can achieve what they had at that poin. Its inspiring.
2022	Indonesia Youth Leadership Conference	Each local committee had their own culture. This conference mad me make a lot of new friend. I learn how to build up connection with them. The mattery that serve is about AIESEC basic knowledge that really enjoy to learn.

2. What is AIESEC Way and AIESEC 2025 and why it is important for AIESEC in Universitas Andalas?

The AIESEC Way contains four clarifications such as Why, Who, How and What. Clarity Why is the main reason why we exist. We strive for peace and fulfillment of human potential. Clarity Who is the person we want to develop and that is youth. Clarity of How is the way we develop youth with the Leadership Development Model. The last one is clarity of What. Clarity of What is the product that we provide to develop them. This is important because it can help us to be able to more clearly design appropriate and consistent activities to achieve the AIESEC Way.

The A2025 metrics are a set of metrics that help organizations measure the achievement of the vision. There is a MoS (Measure of Success) which will be the main benchmark of AIESEC's success over the next five years, and there are metrics to match each statement. Entities contribute to each statement by planning strategies to achieve each one of the metrics. Annually, the organization establishes global goals for each of the metrics identified by the MCP. In 2025, we want to fully own the present, actively shape the future, lead change and be proud to be the 2025 generation.

1. Please explain your strength and weakness to apply as a Organizing Committee 2023?

Weakness Strength - Easy to get along - Procastinate I can synergize well with my teammates to If I have work, it's usually done by the end get feedback and suggestions for the work of time. But I promise it's finished before I do the time limit given to me -Well Structured - Hard to meet up Offline I'm the type of person who makes all work It's not easy for me to meet offline often structured and organized, so it will be because of my parents' permission. But I discussed with my parents that I really clear in its implementation. wanted to be a part of OC JA and these OCs met often. Back to me how to maintain my parents' trust.

2. What will you contribute for this Team? And please mention your strategies or ideas for position that you apply for!

In this team, I will contribute my energy, time, and creativity in carrying out the mandated job task. I'm going to make an overview of what I need to do in this position to see which ones I can work on earlier and which ones take longer to work on.

The strategy I will do are:

- Collect trending updates such as content reels and IG feeds.
- Draft content before execution and invite Aiesec members to participate.
- Create a job desk flow to clearly display deadlines and what was accomplished.

3. Please write, what do you know about Join AIESEC and the process in AIESEC in Universitas Andalas!

Join AIESEC or AIESEC Membership Program is non-formal education for young people whose essence is leadership development. Youth are then provided with a personalized, relevant, and measurable leadership development experience that connects them to a global network of youth organizations and partners.

The series of events itself is registration and then the Youth Today session to equip the delegates in general about the structure of AIESEC, such as existing departments and what is being done in those departments. Furthermore, Leaderless Group Discussion (LGD) activities which focus on discussions to solve a case study with a group of people in one team. It is expected that each delegates can express their opinion in this session. Then after LGD followed by interviews for personal interviews to get to know the delegates better. After passing the interview, go to the screening section, this is the final selection. When screening the delegates will be interviewed by Executive Board (EB) . The question is more to convince the delegates' determination to join.
